COMPETITION TIME FOR BALLYKELLY CREATIVE KIDS!

We want you to design a logo for a new housing development in your village called SAMPSON'S GREEN

Take part in being creative:

- 1 Design a logo for a beautiful new development in the village called Sampson's Green

WHY ARE WE CALLING IT SAMPSON'S GREEN?

We are proposing to call this beautiful development SAMPSON'S GREEN after one of the area's most notable inhabitants - Arthur Sampson! He lived in Walworth House, Ballykelly, which is right beside our new development. He was the agent for the Company of Fishmongers for 40 years, and is credited with the development of many beautiful, interesting buildings built in the Ballykelly village area in the 1800s.

HERE ARE A FEW CLUES FOR YOUR DESIGNS

Arthur Sampson installed a timepiece within the Walled Garden at Walworth House - but you couldn't wear it on your wrist!

There are also a few well known landmarks in the village that might give you a bit of inspiration - but you will have to look them up! We weren't going to make it that easy!

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO:

Design your logo on an A4 sheet using felt tips or paints. Take a photograph of your design and email it to info@drumeen.co.uk

Give us a name:

2 We want names for these two house types we are building

When we market a new development, we like to give each house type a name that is in keeping with the local area. This gives each house type a certain identity and makes it more personal, but it also helps to preserve the historical names that are associated with the area - and we all know that Ballykelly has a lot of history for a small village!
